The Myrrh Desk is a sculptural statement piece, handcrafted from solid wood with En Gold's signature carved detailing. Featuring three bold, twisted legs supporting a soft organic top, this design balances strength with fluidity, making it a striking yet versatile addition to the modern home.

Its generous proportions make it ideal as a desk, writing table, or display piece, offering both function and artistry. The natural wood grain enhances its tactile quality, while the carved form draws inspiration from traditional woodworking, reimagined for contemporary living.
